

HOST HELPER

Suggested Interview Questions for WARD LARSEN. author of *The Perfect Assassin

1. You have an interesting background as a fighter pilot with the U.S. Air Force. What prompted you to write a novel?
2. How did you come up with the story lines in The Perfect Assassin?
3. There is a great deal of detail in the book. Did you have to conduct any special research, or is this breadth of knowledge a part of your military training?
4. When reading The Perfect Assassin, I was struck by how skillfully and effortlessly you seem to be able to weave together the different parallel plots that make up the story. How were you able to accomplish that?
5. Which writers do you consider to be your primary influences?
6. Is there one writer that you compare your work to?
7. Do you have another book or books in the works?
8. Can we expect to see any of the characters from The Perfect Assassin return?
9. How can I learn more about you? Do you have a website?
10. Where can listeners buy a copy of The Perfect Assassin?